Dear Capt. Malloy:

We have reference to the Industrial Incentive Rally which was held at our plant, under the direction of Lt. Melvin F. Lanphar, USNR, on Friday, September 29th. The following men appeared on the program along with Lt. Lanphar:

Cesar J. Romero, BM2/c, USCG
Percy Simmons, Chief Machinist's Mate, USN
T/Sgt. John F. Hadle, USA AIR CORPS

This Rally was attended by 250 of our employees which consisted of our entire first shift and a large part of our second shift. Though we lost one hour of production, the management feels that the splendid presentation put on by these men will aid materially in reducing future absenteeism. This is based on the results we had on the last Rally in May. Of course, it is hard to estimate the direct response from our last Rally but am sure that it helped greatly, at least for thirty days.

We wish to compliment Lt. Lanphar on his method of handling this meeting and feel it a privilege and honor to have his organization visit our plant.

May we congratulate the Industrial Incentive Office on the fine work they are doing in reducing absenteeism which in turn increases production.

Yours very truly,

CHICAGO CURLED HAIR COMPANY

Cesar Romero, USCG, Visits Harbor

Veterans Tell of Pacific Action

Monday, September 25th, members of the Navy, Marines, Coast Guard, and Army presented an unusual account of their individual experiences in combat at Cal Harbor's Recreation Center. The program was under the direction of Lt. Melvin F. Laughar, USNR, who has presented many veterans of combat in other programs at Cal Harbor. Those appearing September 25th were Thomas Coakley, BM 1/c, USNR; Cesar Romero, BM 2/c, USCG; Pvt. Herman Christensen, USMC; Edward Carroll, MM 1/c, USCG; Sidney Bruzer, MM 1/c, USCG; Henry Wagner, MM 1/c, USCG; and John Hadle, US Army Air Corps. It was Pvt. Christensen's second visit to Cal Harbor.

Following are accounts of the action seen by Coakley and Romero.

THOMAS COAKLEY

Cesar Romero

"I want to start by asking you a favor. I want you to look on me today as I look on myself, not as a Hollywood actor, but as a Coast Guard Boatswain's Mate. I've been in the Coast Guard for two years and overseas for nine months and believe me, folks, there's nothing 'Make believe' or Hollywoodish about this war. Right now, I've recently returned from Saipan and Tinian. My ship, a new Coast Guard attack transport, was part of Task Force 58. I can't tell you the name of that ship, but what's the difference? You all know what Task Force 58 did to the Japs.

Being a new ship, most of us had never seen action before we sailed for Saipan, so you can understand how we felt one night when we picked up Tokyo Rose on the Jap radio and heard her say 'Hello, sailors and soldiers, you're heading for Saipan, aren't you? Better turn back now while you still can. We're ready for you. You'll never take Saipan and those who try will never get home.'

"Well, Tokyo Rose was only partly wrong. We did take Saipan, but they were laying for us and a lot of fine boys did not get home. I wish I could make you understand what it cost to take Saipan in lives and humanity suffering. It's impossible to describe what I saw and I didn't see the worst of it when these first Marines went in, but maybe this will help you understand what a tough fight it was. Our ship was carrying troops that were supposed to be reserves. Possibly they would be landed towards the end of the Saipan

Union and Management Join in V-Day Comm.

John Morrissey, left, Electric Department and president of Local 2928, presents John F. Muldoon, Assistant Superintendent, with V-Day pledges signed by workers in the yards. Looking on are members of the V-Day Committee whose hard work was responsible for the success of V-Day pledging. The committee is composed of representatives of both management and the union.

Cesar Romero, BM 2/c, USCG, signs a few autographs during the intermission here Monday, September 25th. Many women were disappointed in not receiving autographs because competition from the men was so great. However, Romero's appearance here was for the purpose of relating his experience in the Pacific rather than for autographing.

"The Three Coast Guard Cutters", Edward Carroll, Sidney Bruzer, and Henry Wagner, provided tuneful interludes during the program.

To our Partners on the Home Front at Pullman-Standard Shipyard, Calumet Harbor:

We wish to tell you that we appreciated the opportunity to visit your plant Monday, September 25 to see the work you are doing for the war effort and to tell you something of the conditions we encountered on the battle fronts.

We wish to renew our pledge to you to give everything we have to win the Victory we know will come. To know we can count on you to do your share by being on your job every day so that our wartime partnership may result in an early Victory.

Cordially yours,

Handwritten signatures:
Hendy Wagner, BM 1/c, USCG
Ed Carroll
Sid Bruzer
Thomas Coakley, BM 1/c
T. Sgt. John Hadle, US Army
Cesar Romero, BM 2/c, USCG and Herman J. Christensen, USMC.

Destroyer Sinks, Harboreite Lost

Harry Yarmat P2/c, U.S.N.R., former Joiner at Cal Harbor, was reported lost when his ship, the USS Warrington, sank off the east coast during the recent hurricane. His death brings our number of gold stars to two.

Yarmat left here to join the Navy last January and had seen extensive action in the South Pacific, including the battle at Saipan. His ship had been on convoy duty in the Atlantic at the time of its sinking, September 13, after battling the storm 48 hours. One of his buddies, a Chicagoan, was picked up after spending 50 hours in the water.

In his last letter to his wife he had written, "Don't worry, dear, I can take anything the Navy has to offer." Harry's fighting spirit, typical of our men who face death every hour, makes us proud to be Americans. Harry is survived by his widow, Lillian, and two children, a boy 12 and a girl 9, living at 3310 W. 13th Street.

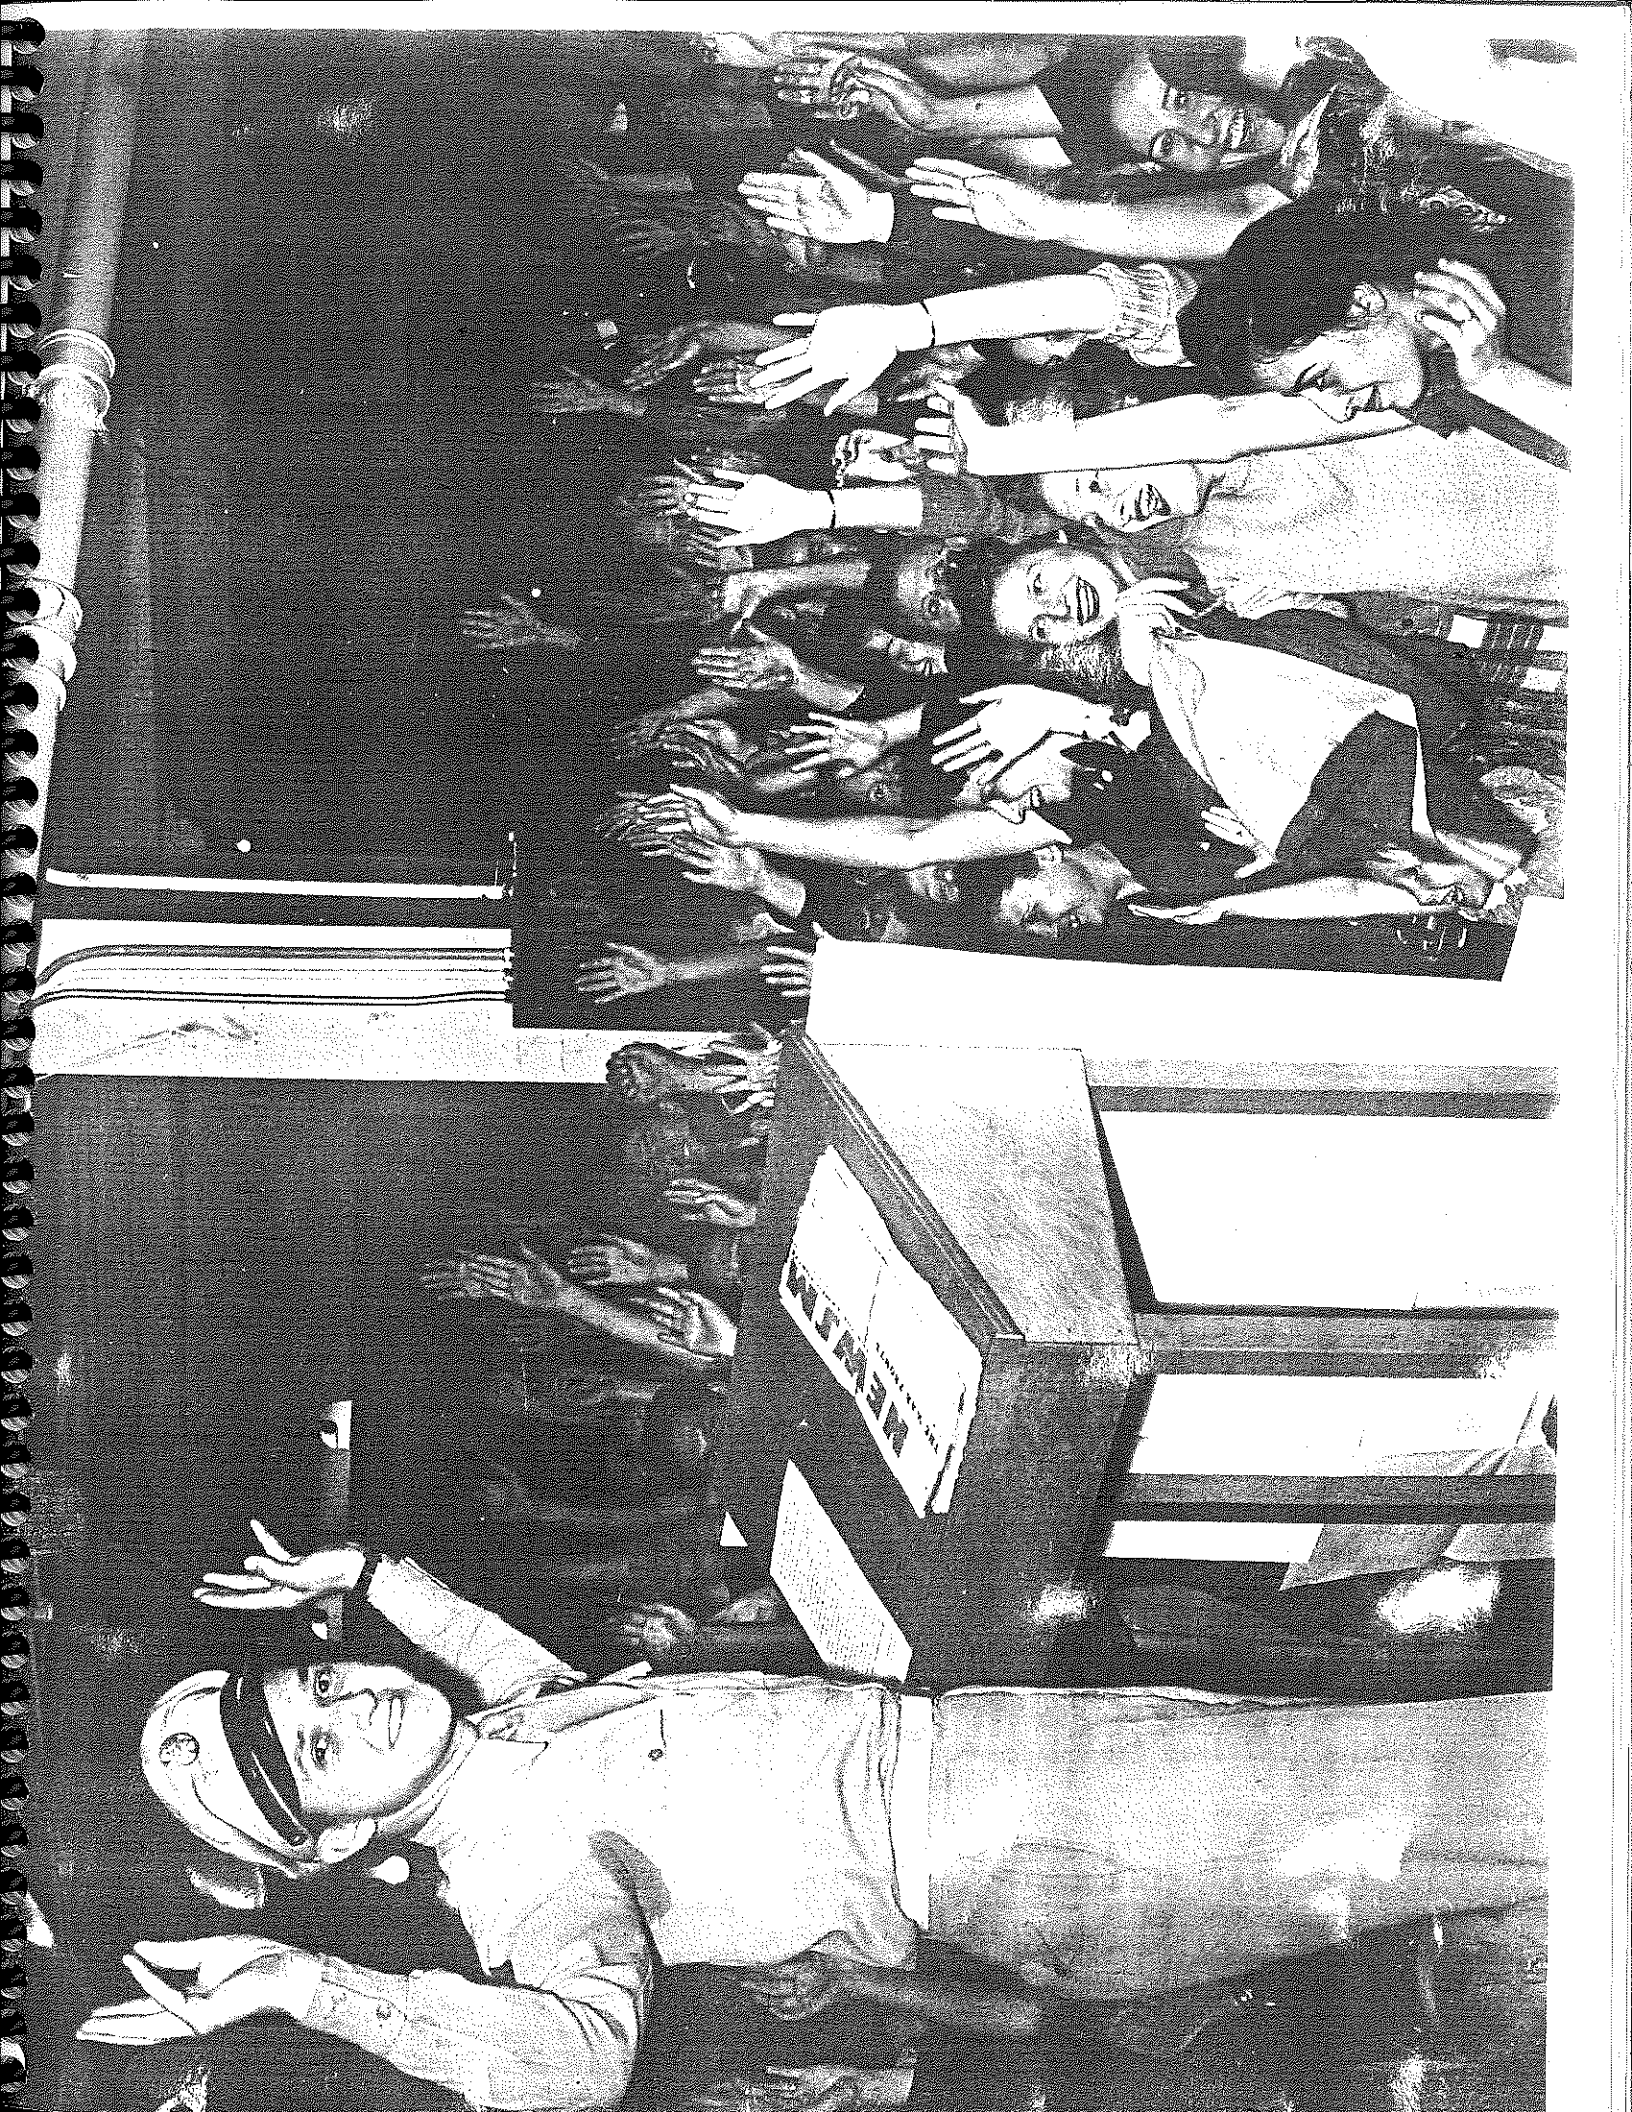

WELCOME BACK!

It was surely a sight for sore eyes to see Mr. Ed Bruder back on the job after his long illness. Dad health overtook him last March and it was May before he returned to work, earlier than he should have, for early in August a relapse put him back on the sick list. He's fully recuperated now, and we're all glad to see him "looking in the pink" again.

The night shift will continue working an 11-hour shift, five days a week during October and November. The hours of the shift will remain at 6:45 PM to 6:15 AM.

invasion, or perhaps he held off. "After we landed those troops, for Tinian and Guam. Well, we arrived at Saipan on D-Day plus one, the second day of the invasion, and we hadn't been there more than a single hour, folks, when the word came through to send in those troops. So you see, when a battle-hardened veteran like Colonel Carlson of the Marine Raiders says 'Tarawa was only a sideshow compared to Saipan,' he wasn't exaggerating.

My dear Captain:-

On September 28, 1944, an Industrial Incentive Rally was held at the Chicago Plant of Rathborne, Hair and Ridgway Company. The men who appeared on the program were:

Chief Radioman Joe L. Bowen, USN
Chief Mach. Mate, Percy Simmons, USN
T/Sgt. John F. Hadle, USAAF

The rally (without getting too "flowery", in my words) defies description because of its excellence. The effect on the employees, of which 44% are Negroes, was amazing to all of us in the management. Before this rally, I was somewhat apprehensive as to the probable results, but at the close of the rally it was clearly demonstrated that there was no need for this apprehension. It was noticed by the writer that many of the 350 people in the audience were deeply affected and many were crying. You request possible suggestions for improvement of the rally, which is completely impossible to do as I frankly see no way in which it could be improved upon.

A copy of this letter is being sent to Lt. Lanphar, and I am also sending copies of photographs taken of the rally. Within the next several days I will also send him records of absenteeism and production for ten days or two weeks before and after the program presented here. Having made a quick check on these above mentioned records, I noted with some satisfaction that your Industrial Incentive Rally has taken the biggest step toward the correction of the problem of absenteeism than any other of the several attempts at solution of this problem of the many we have tried. However, I was somewhat disappointed that our rate of absenteeism did not show as great a change for the better that I was hoping it would. If either you or Lt. Lanphar would have any further ideas in this direction, I am sure our Personnel Director, Mr. E. G. Dietrick, and I would be very pleased to talk it over with you and put into practice your suggestions, if any.

On behalf of the entire management of Rathborne, Hair and Ridgway Company and the employees of our Chicago Plant, I wish to congratulate your office in the planning and the carrying out of these programs as most certainly and without a shadow of a doubt they are a great stimulant in behalf of the War effort.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

On Tuesday, October 3rd, our company's main plant had its Second Industrial Incentive Rally under the direction of Lt. M.F. Lanphar, USNR, District Industrial Incentive Office.

The executives and personnel of our plant were all pleased with the Rally. The employees gained a fuller understanding of the necessity of the products they produce and seem to do their work with more enthusiasm.

The gentlemen who appeared on our program were Lt. M.F. Lanphar, USNR, Plt/Sgt. Mike V. Greco, USMC, Ceasar J. Romero, B.M.2/c, USCGR, T/Sgt. John Hadel, USAAF.

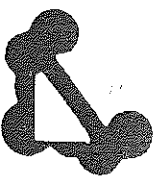

The success of the program was due to the fine work of these men and the excellent direction of Lt. Melvin F. Lanphar.

2. Sgt. Hadle has an excellent story to tell to the war workers and did a splendid job in relating it. He has a personality that makes him very well fitted for this type of work. It is felt that much good was accomplished by his participation in these rallies and this officer was particularly pleased to have his help, as his story drew the interest of those war workers who had sons in the Army.

Navy Day Rally

On September 26, the employees of Webster Products were privileged to have as their guests returned combatants representing the Navy, Army and Coast Guard. We received first hand information about our boys "over there" and the difficulties they encounter while engaging the Axis.

This Navy Day Rally, which was conducted by Chief Bowen of the United States Navy, is a regularly planned feature for war plants. Arrangements for this program were completed through the Industrial Incentive Office, Lt. Melvin Lamphar, Officer in Charge, Board of Trade Building, Chicago. We were sorry that our old friend, Lt. Lamphar was unable to attend this rally. However, Chief Bowen had everything ship shape and made an indelible impression on all of our minds with the need of always being on the job and doing quality work at all times.

Soon after the strains of "Anchors Aweigh" were heard, Mr. Spencer of our Personnel Department greeted our guests and turned the program over to Chief Bowen.

Tech. Sgt. John Hadle thrilled us with his experiences over the target - Germany. During his talk, we found that on 27 out of 33 trips over the Nazi fortress, his ship was shot up. On one occasion, he was forced to use a parachute to save his life. The commanding officer of Sgt. Hadle's flight was Lt. Col. James Stewart, the former movie star. At the end of his story, all Websterners raised their right hands and pledged to continue working to defeat the Axis.

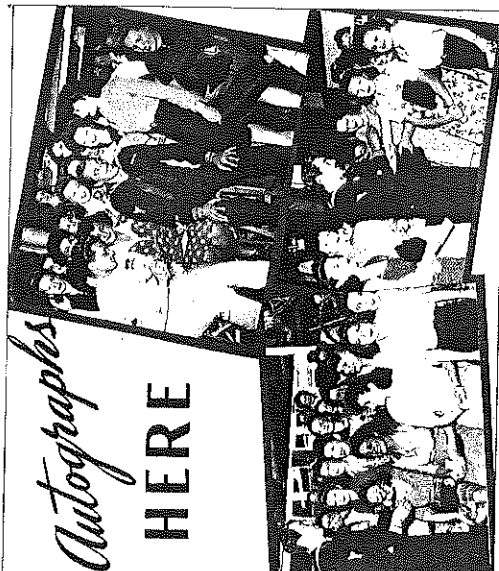

TEL-ALL SUPPLEMENT--NOVEMBER, 1944

U.S.S. MARBLEHEAD. Bowen has been in every country in the world except India and has traveled thousands of miles during World War II as radioman-in-charge on ships on convoy duty in the Atlantic and Pacific.

Chief Bowen's hearing was impaired as a result of gun fire while on active duty in the Atlantic and Pacific prior to and during the first year and a half of World War II. The silver life-saving medal was recommended after Chief Bowen res-cueed four survivors of a ship which was sunk in the icy waters of the North Atlantic. Imprinted in this reporter's mind is the picture of the fifth man who was washed beyond the Chief's reach into the blackness of the sea and night and could not be seen nor found by his would-be rescuer. The Chief continued his efforts and did not give up hope until the last faint, gargling cry proved that the sea had taken another of our boys.

One of the high spots of the afternoon was the message related by Boatswain's Mate Caesar Romero, whose movie career is now surpassed by his action during the invasion of Tinian and Saipan. The real horrors of the war were brought home during Romero's talk. He placed special emphasis upon the unglamorous side of the war—that being the picture of thousands of our men, of our loved ones being killed and shot to pieces to live forever in our memory as horrible examples of Axis brutality. At the close of his remarks, the Coast Guard motto, which very few of us had heard until that time, was quoted: "You must go out. You don't have to come back."

The last speaker of the afternoon was Chief Radioman Joe L. Bowen, a veteran of 16 years service in the United States Navy. Bowen wears ribbons for the following medals: The Yankee Campaign Medal, the American Theater, the European-African Campaign Medal with one star for a submarine engagement in the North Atlantic, the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with a star for the battle of Midway, the Navy Expeditionary Medal, and the Navy Good Conduct Medal, which he has won three times. He has served the Navy as a radioman on the sea in a variety of vessels, under the sea in submarines and as radioman and 2nd pilot on a plane operating from the

CHANUTE FIELD
Office of the Veterans Counselor
Chanute Field, Illinois

Dear John:

You are a former member of the Air Corps. A former member of the greatest team on earth, and even though you no longer wear the Air Force uniform you will want to identify yourself with this arm of the service always.

Continuing in the spirit of, "The Air Corps takes care of its own," a distinctive Air Corps Discharge Emblem has been designed in recognition of your fraternity with the greatest striking force the world has ever known.

Inclosed you will find one of these new emblems, which we hope you will wear in place of the one which you were issued at the time of your separation from the service.

Since you were discharged at Chanute Field, the Separation Base here has ceased operation. However, this office was created specifically as a continuation of the counseling service which was an important factor of your separation procedure. If at any time in the future you have problems that you believe this office can help you with, by all means feel free to write us.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth R. Higgs
